Farmers and Consumers FREEDOM & LIBERTY SEMINAR

Hosted by
State Senator Mike Folmer

THE REAL DEAL ABOUT RAW MILK

August 2, 2008
7:30 am – 6:00 pm

LOCATION:

Cedar Crest High School
115 East Evergreen Road
Lebanon, Pennsylvania 17042

This seminar is for you if...

- You are concerned about preserving your food choices;
- You are concerned about food safety and security;
- You are concerned about the issues with the (Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture) PDA's Raw Milk Permit;
- You want to know what a permit really costs!
- You are a raw milk permitted farmer and want to give up your permit but not sure how to go about it;
- You have concerns about farms that do not participate in the PDA's raw milk permit program or
- You question how a raw milk permit makes raw milk safe.

Come and hear answers to these and other questions and concerns about Direct Farmer-to-Consumer Sales, Raw Milk and PDA's Raw Milk Permit and how it affects you.

Keynote Speaker

Sally Fallon Morell

President Weston A. Price Foundation

Find out why raw milk is the best food for growing children and for the whole family; how it helps the body fight disease; and why it has its own built-in safety mechanism. The economic and environmental benefits of small scale raw milk production and tricks used by anti-raw milk forces will also be discussed.

Featured Speakers include:

State Senator Mike Folmer – Lancaster, Lebanon, Berks, and Chester Counties

Jonas Stoltzfus – President of PICFA (Pennsylvania Independent Consumers & Farmers Association)

Ted Beals – MD, Retired Pathologist & Professor

William Taylor Reil – Constitutional Scholar

State Representative Sam Rohrer – R-Berks County

Peter Kennedy – Vice President of the Farm-to-Consumer Legal Defense Fund
