According to this farmer, raw milk is nutritionally dense with live enzymes and 300%-500% higher levels of naturally occurring carotenoids, vitamin D and cancer fighting CLAs.

Join us for an evening with Mark McAfee where we explore the issue of raw milk. Learn how this enzyme rich food source has been strengthening immune systems, stimulating complete digestion and healing many chronic conditions for thousands of years. Mark will address the most frequently heard myths about raw milk. Due to be a great lecture, so don't miss it!
